Key Points:

1. Coverage applies to all licensed agents contracted with Foresters who have enrolled for coverage and paid the appropriate premium amount due.
2. Coverage is "Claims Made and Reported" which covers claims first made against the agent and reported to the Insurance Carrier during the policy period and any applicable extended reporting period. It is important to report all potential claims as soon as possible even if suit has not been filed. Failure to report potential claims may jeopardize coverage. (For claims reporting procedures, see page 8).
3. Defense costs are outside the limits of liability.
4. Coverage for prior acts dating back to the first claims-made Life Agents Professional Liability policy issued by an insurer from which date coverage has been maintained in force by any insurer without interruption.
5. Defense provided for covered claims even if they are groundless, false or fraudulent.
6. If the agent's contract with Foresters terminates, an unlimited Extended Reporting Period (ERP) is provided for Foresters products at no additional cost to the agent. A one-year ERP is provided for all other covered products. See page 5 for details. For agents who become retired, disabled or deceased during the policy period, there is no additional cost, and the ERP is unlimited. An ERP is not available in any circumstances where other professional liability insurance is in force that would provide any coverage for the claim or if the "Named Certificate Holder" cancels this Policy before the end of the policy period.
7. Coverage is provided for the sale, soliciting and/or servicing of:
 - Life, Accident and Health, Disability Income and Long Term Care Insurance;
 - Fixed Annuities;
 - Variable Life Insurance and Variable Annuities; and
 - Mutual Funds registered with the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission and sold by a licensed "Registered Representative" through a FINRA licensed "Broker/Dealer".

Coverage Description:

Who is my Insurance Carrier?

Zurich American Insurance Company is your insurance carrier or Insurer. Zurich American Insurance Company is a member company of The Zurich American Insurance Group, which has an A.M. Best's Rating of A+.¹

Who is Covered?

1. The agent contracted with Foresters and enrolled in this insurance program. See Key Point number 1 on the previous page to determine who is considered an "agent".
2. Administrative employees of a "Named Certificate Holder", while acting on behalf of the agent and within the scope of their duties as such. Licensed administrative employees are also included, so long as they are not party to an agent or broker contract or employment with any insurance company for the purpose of selling insurance;
3. Heirs, executors, administrators, assignees or legal representatives of the agent in the event of the agent's death, incapacity or bankruptcy;
4. Any corporation, partnership or other entity in the business of insurance services, which is either owned or controlled by the agent would be covered. However, coverage applies only to those operations of the business entity related to the professional insurance services covered under this policy.

It is important to note that a corporation, partnership or other entity and employees, heirs, executors, administrators or legal representatives do not have their own separate limits. They share the agent's coverage and limits.

What are the Limits of Liability?

The limits of this policy are $1,000,000 each claim/$1,000,000 annual aggregate, each agent (Optional $2,000,000 each claim/$2,000,000 annual aggregate available for additional premium). The first limit means that the Insurance Carrier will not pay over $1,000,000 on any one claim. The aggregate limit of $1,000,000 is the total amount that the Insurance Carrier will pay for claims reported during the policy period and Extended Reporting Period for each agent regardless of the number of claims.

Any incurred defense costs are outside the limits of liability.

What is the Deductible?

The deductible is $0 each claim for products of Foresters and $500 each claim for All Other Covered Products. The deductible applies to each claim for any negligent act, error or omission covered by this policy. The deductible applies to a court judgment and a good faith settlement negotiated by the Insurance Carrier on behalf of an agent. If an agent refuses to pay the deductible, the Insurance Carrier may take whatever steps necessary to collect it, including legal action and/or referral to a collection agency.

An agent is responsible for the deductible only if a payment is made to the claimant. An agent is not responsible for the deductible if the only expense incurred is related to defense or investigative activities.

Are Agents Covered for Acts Committed Prior to the Inception Date of the Policy?

Since this is a "Claims Made and Reported Policy," any claim that is made and reported during the current policy period is covered, subject to the terms and conditions of the policy, even if the error or omission occurred prior to the policy period as long as the error or omission occurred after your retroactive date.

Retroactive Date" means the inception date of the "Named Certificate Holder's" first claims made agent's professional liability policy from which date coverage has been maintained in force without interruption and for which written proof is provided to the Company.

Conditions:

What are Some Important Conditions of the Policy?

1. Coverage is on a "Claims Made and Reported" basis, which covers claims first made against the covered agent and reported in writing to the Insurance Carrier during the current policy period or Extended Reporting Period.
2. If a claim alleges dishonest, fraudulent or malicious acts and is accompanied by covered allegations, a defense will be provided so long as the covered acts remain a part of the allegations.

What Happens if an Agent's Contract with Foresters terminates?

If an agent's contract with Foresters terminated during the policy period, coverage will continue until the end of the policy period. If at the time of contract termination the premium has not been paid in full, any scheduled future installments will continue to be drafted from the account on file.

If an agent's contract terminates with Foresters for reasons other than retirement, death or disability, the agent will have an Extended Reporting Period, at no additional cost to the agent, (unlimited for Foresters products or other provider's products sponsored by Foresters and one (1) year for all other products) from the date of contract termination in which to report claims, but only for negligent acts, errors or omissions committed prior to the date the agent's contract termination with Foresters, and which are otherwise covered under this policy.

However, if an agent's contract terminates due to disability, death or retirement, an unlimited Extended Reporting Period is provided at no additional cost to the agent. This will provide coverage for claims first reported during the Extended Reporting Period arising out of negligent acts, errors or omissions committed prior to the date the agent's death, disablement or retirement with Foresters, and which are otherwise covered under this policy.

The Extended Reporting Period is not available in any circumstances where other professional liability insurance is in force that would provide any coverage for the claim or if the "Named Certificate Holder" cancels the policy before the end of the policy period.

Notice of Claims:

What are the Obligations for Reporting Claims or Potential Claims?

Coverage is on a "Claims Made and Reported" basis which covers claims first made against the covered agent during the current policy period, and must be reported to the carrier in writing during the current policy period. Each agent is responsible for reporting all claims or potential claims directly to Lancer Claims Services, with a copy to CalSurance® and Foresters Legal Department, at the addresses provided on the "What to do in the Event of a Claim or Potential Claim" document found at the back of this guide.

What is Considered a Claim?

A claim is considered to be a notice of legal process received by an agent or a demand for money or services made against the agent. A claim is not limited to a formal complaint or lawsuit.

If an agent becomes aware of any proceeding, event or development, which, in their judgment, might result in a claim against him/her, even if that agent feels that the claim is unjustified, that agent must report the available particulars immediately. Should the circumstances or "potential" claim develop into a claim at some future date, the reporting of a possible incident by the agent will serve as a notice of claim under this policy period.

What Should Be Done if There is a Claim?

1. As soon as you are aware of an E&O claim or circumstances that may lead to a claim, you should immediately report the claim or potential claim to Lancer Claims Services. Visit <https://www.calsurance.com/report-a-claim/> for more info.
2. Lawsuits should be emailed to Lancer Claims Services and faxed to Foresters using the contact information found in the "What to do in the Event of a Claim or Potential Claim" document found at the back of this guide.
3. Develop a written chronology of events giving rise to the claim.
4. Be prepared to provide a copy of the applicable file.

What Actions Should Be Avoided in the Event of a Claim?

1. Do not incur any expenses in connection with any claim that involves payment by the Insurance Carrier except with the written consent of the Insurance Carrier.
2. Once an incident has been identified or an errors and omissions claim has been made, great care should be exercised to avoid any disclosures or discussion of any facts or information relating to the claim with anyone, unless they identify themselves to be from the Insurance Carrier, Foresters or a designated representative appointed to handle the claim.
3. Do not admit liability.

What Should an Agent do if in Doubt About Whether, or How, to Report a Claim or has a Coverage Question?

For advice contact: CalSurance®
(201) 526-4628 or (714) 939-7451
Attn: Austin Keeby

What Happens after the Claim is Reported?

- A representative from the Insurance Carrier will contact the agent within a few days to acknowledge the receipt of the claim and discuss the particulars of the situation. Additional information or documents may be requested.
- Coverage under the Agent's E&O program will be determined and the agent will be advised of any coverage issues.
- If necessary, an attorney will be retained. In order to ensure the best possible defense, the agent should cooperate completely with the individual retained, provide full details and be candid.
